Add further details:

I was refused in 2003. Since the refusal, I have met all the grounds of refusal. I am now married, with 3 children. I am a business person, who trades in clothing and materials, and barbing saloon. I have my own house in my name. My mother who is my sponsor promised to sponsor me on this trip, and I will visit the places I had indicated in this application. My mother's account is very buoyant. She has accommodation where I will stay, and she is giving me £2500 for the trip and spending money. I am going to spend 2 weeks and return to Nigeria. I have my wife and children who depend on me, and business and property to return to. I was ill in 2014 for sometime, but now fully recovered, and my mother felt it appropriate that I come to relax and enjoy my time in the UK. I have finished at Open University and studied Peace and Conflict Resolutions. My future is bright and prosperous in Nigeria, and would like to visit UK frequently on holidays. I will therefore want to maintain good record.
